

I am thoroughly disapointed by Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air an anti-Kerry film so close to the election. I consider this program biased and not newsworthy. We need to stop this kind of corporate dominance of public airwaves. No public media organization should be able to weild this kind of power over our elections. The bottomline is that news must be unbiased.